Description

You can order a laminated certificate only if you successfully pass any online test.

To check the results in the database, it is necessary to indicate the following in the order notes:

- the exact test date
- the name of the test taken
- your email
- an internet link to the test results page for successfully passing the test
- your first and last name (for printing on the certificate)

Orders for a certificate for a test that was successfully passed in "Guest" mode will not be accepted.
